A Fantastic Opportunity – Licensed Electrician.

Eacom is the Riverina's leading provider of integrated technologies including Fire, Security, Health Care and Communications. We are excited to be recruiting for a unique role based in our Griffith NSW branch - NSW Licensed Electrician.

This is a fantastic opportunity for a professional looking to take their career in a new direction within a dynamic ever-growing industry and become a part of a fast-growing dedicated team. This role is challenging and interesting and will see the candidate working in a positive environment with a friendly culture supported by a great group of co-workers.

Eacom will supply uniforms, phone, laptop and a company vehicle. We offer a 38 hour week, opportunities for overtime and every Friday is a 2pm finish. Previous experience in fire protection servicing is desired but not essential as training and support will be provided.

If you are looking to challenge yourself in an exciting and fast paced industry; we want you.

For more information, please contact Julie Heyward on 02 6964 2033.

Applications can be emailed to recruitment@eacom.com.au by the 17th of August 2018.
